DETAILED ACTION

An examination of this application reveals that applicant is unfamiliar with patent prosecution procedure. While an inventor may prosecute the application, lack of skill in this field usually acts as a liability in affording the maximum protection for the invention disclosed. Applicant is advised to secure the services of a registered patent attorney or agent to prosecute the application, since the value of a patent is largely dependent upon skilled preparation and prosecution. The Office cannot aid in selecting an attorney or agent.

A listing of registered patent attorneys and agents is available on the USPTO Internet web site <http://www.uspto.gov> in the Site Index under "Attorney and Agent Roster." Applicants may also obtain a list of registered patent attorneys and agents located in their area by writing to the Mail Stop OED, Director of the U. S. Patent and Trademark Office, PO Box 1450, Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Specification

Applicant is reminded of the proper language and format for an abstract of the disclosure.

The abstract should be in narrative form and generally limited to a single paragraph on a separate sheet within the range of 50 to 150 words. It is important that the abstract not exceed 150 words in length since the space provided for the abstract on the computer tape used by the printer is limited. The form and legal phraseology often used in patent claims, such as "means" and "said," should be avoided. The abstract should describe the disclosure sufficiently to assist readers in deciding whether there is a need for consulting the full patent text for details.

The language should be clear and concise and should not repeat information given in the title. It should avoid using phrases which can be implied, such as, "The disclosure concerns," "The disclosure defined by this invention," "The disclosure describes," etc.

Claim Objections

Claims 6,8,9 are objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c) as being in improper form because a multiple dependent claim cannot depend from any other multiple dependent claims. Accordingly, the claims have not been further treated on the merits.

Claim 1 is objected to because of the following informality: (a) "the said" is improper and should be changed to said. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim 3 is objected to because of the following informality: (a) the word "grader" does not make sense and perhaps should be replaced with the word greater. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 1-5 and 7 is rejected as failing to define the invention in the manner required by 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph. The phrase "under normal demands of force" in line 8 is vague and ambiguous. The claim(s) are narrative in form and replete with indefinite and functional or operational language. The structure, which goes to make up the device, must be clearly and positively specified. The structure must be organized and correlated in such a manner as to present a complete operative device.

The claim(s) must be in one sentence form only. Each claim begins with a capital letter and ends with a period. Periods may not be used elsewhere in the claims except for abbreviations. See Fressola v. Manbeck, 36 USPQ2d 1211 (D.D.C. 1995). Where a claim sets forth a plurality of elements or steps, each element or step of the claim should be separated by a line indentation, 37 CFR 1.75(i).

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Hirose (U.S. 5449342) discloses a flap valve on side of tubular body (detailed description, para.54); Dlouhy (U.S. 5199455) discloses a flap valve along exterior curve (detailed description, para.9; 50, fig. 5); Gerberding (U.S. 6475187) discloses a side hole with a valve-like cover flap (background, para.16; detailed description, para.10); Shaley (U.S. 2005/0177105) discloses a fenestration on side wall of a tube (summary of invention, para.22, 32; 220, fig.4).
